

THE EMPEROR'S SECRET

Treasure hunting

Thang Long - Hanoi is one of Asia's most ancient capital cities, Hanoi covers a thousand years of history. Its old temples, sanctuaries and shrines reveal the amazing history of ancient Thang Long, now known as Hanoi.

Recent archaeological excavations within Hanoi's city walls have uncovered an abundance of relics attesting to the enormous scale and influences of Thang Long's history. During recent excavations, archaeologists chanced upon a relic letter written by an imperial maid of the Ly dynasty 1076 revealing the location of the emperor's hidden treasure. This letter had been passed through generations of her family, with a sworn oath to protect its contents. However, the treasure has yet to be discovered.

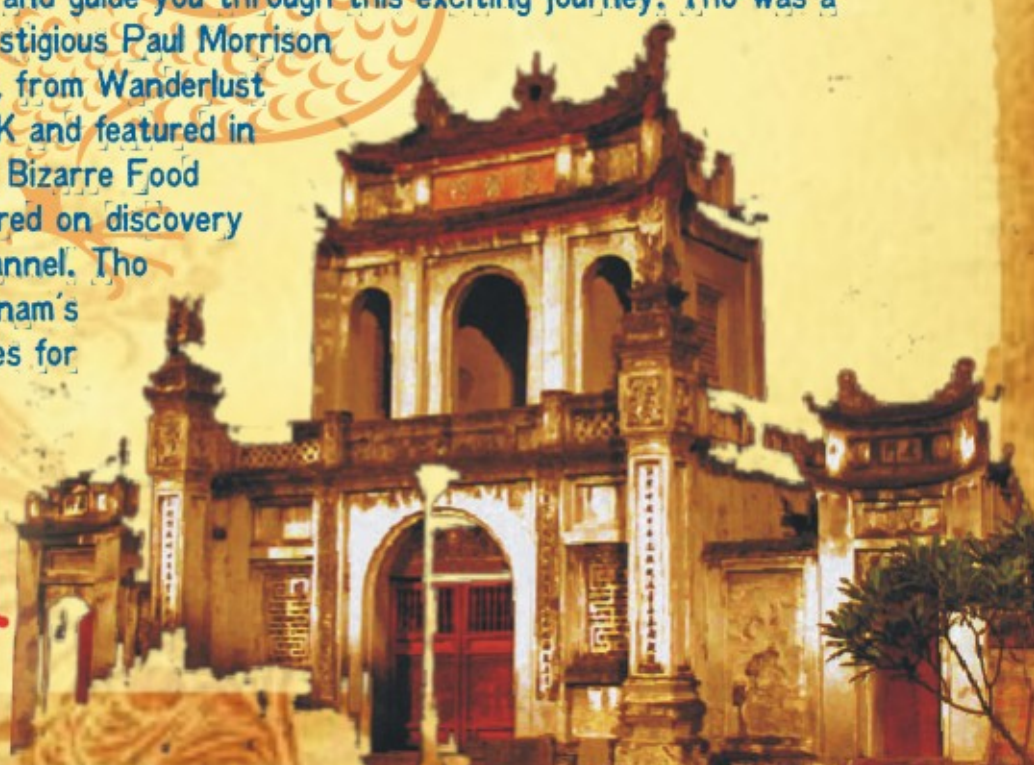

We are now the owner of this letter and is offering you the opportunity to be a part of the exploration team to discover this hidden treasure. Its contents are yet to be revealed. This depends on you to help us re-discover its treasure

This letter is the only key to unlocking the location of the Emperor's treasure. You will be given a copy of this letter; as a team you need to solve the clue inscribed within the message to unlock the thousand year old secret and discover the long lost treasures of Hanoi.

Your host for this scenario, Vu Minh Tho, will conduct this exploration. He will be there to advise and guide you through this exciting journey. Tho was a finalist for the prestigious Paul Morrison Guide Award 2006, from Wanderlust Magazine in the UK and featured in Andrew Zimmern's Bizarre Food television Show, aired on discovery Discovery Asia Channel. Tho also starred in Vietnam's Hidden Charm series for VTV1 and more.
